

WELCOME TO NORTH SAN MATEO COUNTY!

We're glad you're here to learn more about North San Mateo County with us. To kick us off, you'll notice your nametag has a color on it. Your job is to find a least three people with a different color and learn more about why they are here. We've included a few questions below to get you started. Once you've met three people, head back to the registration desk and put your name into the jar for a chance to win a local restaurant gift certificate. The drawing will be held at the end of the event.
